All requirements: Functional Requirements: 1. The user can split only one document at a time 2. The compression of the output files requires pdf version 1.5 or above 3. The number of digits that can be used for the unique [FILENUMBER] prefix must be 10 or less 4. Pages number in the page selection must be comprehended 5. The user can mix only 2 documents at a time 6. The user can manipulate only 1 document at a time 7. Log level must not be OFF (in the Settings panel) in order to work the log panel 8. Restart PDFsam application to be the changes applied for the Settings panel Non-Functional Requirements: 1. The response time of the program should be direct and the application is considered real-time 2. The system can check for updates whenever is requested by the user, or automatically when opening the application 3. The application must ensure that it leaves untouched the input pdf files and should function even in cases of wrong data insertion or wrong settings 4. PDFsam does not introduce any security level 5. The application provides a pleasant and user-friendly graphical interface with relatively simple functions 6. The software is released under the GNU General Public License, allowing people to use and even redistribute the software without being required to pay anyone a fee for doing so